AUSPICIOUS OPENING

Norfolk Conservatory of Music Opened Its Doors Yesterday.

lasses Formed to Vocat and Instru mental Music, Elocution. Art Study

The Norfolk Conservatory of Music the first institution of this character opened in Virginia and said to be the econd in the South, opened its doors yesterday to the public. The conserv atory is very desirably located, occu-Dedson building. These rooms are ad-Dodson building. These rooms are admirably fitted for the purposes of the conservatory, being large, well lighted and ventilated and connected throughout so that they may be practically thrown together from front to rear.

The rooms were thronged yesterday by leading citizens, the fair sex precommating, and the high character and large number of the vestions show.

The officers of the conservatory are: ir. Anton v. Kermer, A. G. O., pres-tent, and Mr. Charles Borjes, vice-

The caculty is composed of Mr. Koerne, plano, organ and harmony; Miss Mary Elizabeth Marable, of Norfolk, and Mr. Waverly J. TALENT.

One of the big attractions at the State Fair will be a cake walk on Tuesday and Friday by prize winning teams of cake walkers from Portsmouth and Norfoik. There will be five couples in each team. The prize will be fifty dollars.

Secretary Wm. Dillon returned yesterday from Trenton, N. J., whither he went to secure special attractions. He reports great success and that there will be many novel features at the coming fair.

Mrs. Frank Anthony Walke, of 102 Grace street, wishes to call attention to the fact that entries for the ladies equestrian contest will close on September 30th. The prize offered, a beautiful gold watch, should induce many ladies to compete. The entries in the ladies' department should be sent to Mrs. Walke, entries in the ladies' department should be sent to Mrs. Walke, entries in the laties of the laties partment should be sent to Mrs. Walke, entries in the laties in the sent leaves to the contribution of the sent to Mrs. Walke, entries in the laties in the sent leaves to the contribution of the sent to Mrs. Walke, entries in the laties in the sent leaves to the competent of the laties of fair ground.

Prof. Arthur Bledsoc Cooke, of Vofford College, S. C., and Miss Stella V. Crider, of Norfolk, Va., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Tuzsday at high noon by Rev. J. W. Crider, of the Virginia Conference, father of the bride. On account of recent lilness of the groom the marriage took piace at his home, Melton's, Va., in the presence of only intimate friends of the family.

They left immediately for Europe, where they will spend one year traveling in the Old Countries, after which Professor and wife will return to Wofford Collegs,

It is not generally known, but it is and from Old Point Comfort an express train every hour. This is entirely for Old Point business, and is between the hours of 12 m, and 6 p, m, these hours included. This gives seven through express trains in the afternoon and eleven trains a day to Old Point. The express trains handle through passenters in 45 minutes.

The travel to and from intermediate printing is handled by a distinct train service, trains leaving Norfolk at 7:30, 8:145 and 10:30 a. m, and hourly afternoons.

IT OPENED YESTERDAY WITH BRIGHT PROSPECTS.

reased with the prospects for a successful term.

It is not generally known that Miss Eleanor Ten Eyck Macy has returned, after an absence of two years, to take charge of the elecution and physical culture department. Miss Macy is well and favorably known here. Since leaving Norfolk she has taken a course in the New England Conservatory.

Miss Mary Gray, who has charge of the School of Art, having held this position in the Norfolk College, will very soon have a large art class. It is her intention to organize a sketching class in the near future.
